

INAYA FOUNDATION

A WORLD OF POSSIBILITIES...!!!

An NGO with a difference! As the name suggests, INAYA is a symbol of solicitude, care and concern on the various human aspects, for a Better World Tomorrow! INAYA's philosophy is to find "Possibilities" where others feel helpless. We constantly look for the 'Silver lining on a Dark Cloud'. Started in the year 2011, INAYA today is a force to reckon with, in social service. The core team of INAYA comprises of social workers, corporate people, educationists and other socially empathetic individuals. In a short span of 7 years INAYA has undertaken many private and government social service projects in diversified arenas – such as Human Milk Bank, Road Safety, Awareness on BAD TOUCH to Children, Widow Empowerment, Water Conservation, Destitute Children Welfare and more.

समझ स्पर्श की – चुप्पी तोड़ो !!!

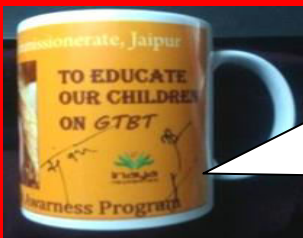

This Workshop on GTBT (Good Touch-Bad Touch) is an endeavor by INAYA to save our children from the heinous acts of Bad touch - Specially the Girl Child. The module is designed to be composite, covering all areas of GTBT viz. Counseling on identification of a Bad Touch, Means to handle such situations, as also imparting awareness on the Government initiatives such as POCSO act, Help Line Numbers, Article 374 et al. The main aim of this initiative to pull the children out of the stigma of Bad Touch and make them confident to voice the Misdeed. Hence the emphasis on- चुप्पी तोड़ो

This module has been created, under indian context with delivery in an entertaining fun-filled, lucid manner, to suit the children's psyche and keep them engrossed throughout. This 3 hours session includes delivery through PPT discourse involving indian history, storytelling and interacting with children throughout to bring them out of the shell. Props such as videos, photos, captions, katputli dances, natak, quiz, poetry, rajasthani folk songs, tell your tale, circle dance are just a few.

GTBT is a delicate subject delivered by INAYA with a difference!
